CIRCULATING THROUGHOUT THE VAST AGRICULTURAL AREA OF PALM BEACH COUNTY

Another Sugar Mill--This One On The Miami Canal

Another sugar mill—not of the mammoth variety that this area has seen constructed lately—but big enough to take care of five to six thousand acres of sugar cane, will be erected south of Lake Harbor and operated by the Glades County Sugar Growers Cooperative with a mill at Moore Haven. Present plans call for a continuation of cane planting in that area and erection of the mill, broker, said yesterday that plans soon.

Joe Brown, Glades vegetable are in the work for the new mill which will be operated by the same group that operates the Moore Haven mill. Mr. Brown said that commitments are now in hands of officials for something in the neighborhood of 5-6,000 acres.

Mr. Brown this week completed planting 875 acres in the area about five miles south of Lake Harbor along the Miami Canal. Mr. Brown said further that plans call for manufacturing the raw sugar at the Miami canal mill and hauling it to Moore Haven to be refined in the refinery erected along with the mill there two years ago.

Aviation Seminar Scheduled Mar. 14-15

Local organizations are being offered an opportunity to take two or more concessions at the Aviation Seminar on March 14-15 by the Pahokee Jaycees. All supplies will be furnished for the booth and those organizations taking part will receive a 50-50 split in the net profit.

All interested persons should get in touch with Bob Meyer, Chairman of the Seminar. Accommodations are still needed for about thirty Navy men. Those offering rooms to these men so far are Mr. and Mrs. Hank Aldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hillier, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vandegriff, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Al Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dobrow and Mr. and Mrs. George Wedgworth.

Jack Spencer Won't Close When He Moves

Jack Spencer, who plans to consolidate two stores next week when he moves his present store from the Chastain building in Pahokee to the building now occupied by the Glades Market, had planned to close the old store next Monday during the move. Mr. Spencer has had a change of mind and will make an effort to keep both stores open during the move and consolidation. It's a good trick, if he can do it.

Glades Roads Bids Be Received Mar. 3

Bids will be received in Tallahassee on Tuesday, March 3, for construction of two roads in the Glades that will, in all probability, carry more farm products to market than any other two roads in the Glades, according to County Commissioner Paul Rardin of the Glades, under whose direction the roads are being constructed.

One of the roads is Duda Road and the other is Curlee Road—a new road name to folks in the Glades. Duda Road will be rebuilt to state road department standards for secondary roads from State Highway 80 south for 1½ miles, Rardin said. He pointed out that Curlee Road which will run on a new right-of-way from the hump backed culvert in front of the prison farm on SR 15 across the muck east for a distance of 1½ miles to the new 15 million dollar Glades Sugar House, will be standard state highway, built with the thought in mind that it will be of service for many years to come to the sugar industry in the Belle Glade area.

Name for Curlee road came about several months ago when Commissioner Rardin suggested to the county commission that the road be named after the prison farm superintendent, Garree Curlee. Right-of-way for the road was donated by the state prison farm and Commissioner Rardin thought it fitting and proper that the road be named after Mr. Curlee. The idea was put in the form of a resolution and forwarded to the State Road Department where the suggestion was accepted and now plans for the new road carry the new name, Mr. Rardin pointed out to his board that Mr. Curlee had been quite cooperative in helping to develop the 'county park' on SR 715 and that state prison farm labor had been used on state land (which joins the park) to clean it up and make it more attractive.

The road department has awarded a bid to Capeletti Bros. Inc., of Hialeah to build the new bridge at Fifth Street in Belle Glade across the Hillsborough canal. Cost of construction will be $117,000.00.

Atlantic Sugar Mill Drives Piling

Atlantic Sugar Cooperative is busy this week making a sincere effort to get a sugar mill built in time to grind cane this fall. Contractors are busy driving piling and getting ready to pour the floor.

A steam pile driver is being used for the first part of the construction work. Plumbers are on the job as the piling and floor foundation are being put into place, making sure that every piece of draining pipe is in proper location. Progress on the mill is reported as good.

AT S. S. MEETING

The monthly Palm Lake Association Sunday School meeting was held Monday Night, February 17, in Lake Worth. Those attending from Canal Point were Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence Stewart and Mrs. Arnold J. Scruggs.

Pahokee Lions Club Will Reach Quarter Century

All Bids Rejected By A&P Tea Company

Recently the Atlantic and Pacific tea Company received bids on erection of a new grocery store in Pahokee. Reports are that all bids were rejected as being too high. Blanton and Unwin, Pahokee contractors, were low bidders with a bid of $134,000.00. When the Tea Company will call for new bids is not known at this time.

Celery Price High, No Beans Here And Corn Sells At $4

Sugar mills are booming! Grinding day and night! Vegetables are rolling to northern markets in large volume. Money is rolling into the Glades in quantities never known before. How long can it last? That is the question being asked on every hand by wisecracks and oldtimers. The answer isn't readily available.

Celery is being harvested in huge quantities and the price is $4.50 per crate here which is about as high as it's been in many a moon. Many fellows in the celery producing business stand to get rich again this year.

Beans in any quantity have to be bought on the east coast in the Pompano section. They are hard to find in the Lake Region right now. The price is good.

Corn is selling around $4.00 per acre and the demand is good. The quality is good and the quantity is enough to take care of the major markets.

Weeks Is Hauling To Fill Gap In Dike

J. G. Weeks and Son, contract haulers, are busy this week hauling 100,000 yards of material on the dike at Pahokee to fill in the gap where the dike passes the city water plant installation and the Pahokee Dock.

Material to fill in the gap has been stockpiled immediately south of the affected area and it is from there that the Weeks trucks are hauling the material.

The Lindseys have been residents of the Pahokee and Glades area for nearly 19 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Younger have as their guests his prents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Younger of Columbus, Ind.

Local Women Will Work Heart Fund

Mrs. D. L. Hooks is Heart Sunday Chairman for Canal Point, and the door-to-door drive will get started today.

"What's the Heart Association doing about it?"

"Since 1948, The Heart Association has invested $65,000,000 in research."

Bud Dickinson Is Officially In The Governor's Race

TALLAHASSEE—Senator Fred (Bud) Dickinson filed his qualifying papers here Tuesday noon, (February 18th).

Dickinson then launched his active campaign for Governor with a sweeping 21-county tour through the North Florida Panhandle area.

The West Palm Beach attorney will visit 29 cities from Tuesday through Saturday. Enthusiastic rallies and live television programs highlighted his appearances in Panama City, Tuesday, and Pensacola Wednesday. A rally is scheduled for Thursday in Marianna and a reception and live television program are scheduled Friday in Tallahassee.

In announcing his plans, Dickinson said . . . "While West Palm Beach is my home, I have a great many friends and active supporters throughout the North Florida area. This trip is designed so that I can meet and greet each of them personally and tell them face-to-face about my plans for Florida's growth and its tremendous potential."

Dickinson, who has probably covered more territory in Florida than any other candidate, is making his swing aboard a special bus — the "Dickinson Sunshine State Express". The bus will serve as headquarters for the Dickinson "team" and his supporters throughout the campaign.

Regarded by many as the hardest working of the campaigners for Governor, Dickinson wasted no time after filing his qualification papers Tuesday noon.

The former Chairman of the Council of 100 held a meeting across the street from the Capitol at 12:01, moving on to Crawfordville at 12:30. During the rest of the afternoon, Dickinson stopped at Carrabelle, Apalachicola, Port St. Joe, Wewahatchka and Panama City — where his supporters held a rally and where Dickinson made a live television appearance that evening.

Wednesday, Dickinson made stops at Destin, Ft. Walton Beach, Valparaiso and Niceville, and wound up the day's hectic activity in Pensacola with a series of rallies and another live television appearance.

On Thursday, the former Representative and State Senator from Palm Beach County travels to Milton, Crestview, DeFuniak Springs, Bonifay and Chipley, finishing the day with a rousing rally in Marianna.

Friday's schedule takes Dickinson to Blountstown, Bristol, Chattahoochee, Quincy, and Havana, returning to Tallahassee in the evening for a reception and another live television program.

Dickinson winds up the current tour on Saturday after stopovers at Monticello, Madison, Perry, Mayo, Live Oak and Lake City.

Joe Repper is a patient in Everglades Memorial Hospital after undergoing surgery Saturday.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lee Shirley.

Will Honor Power Company Chairman

MIAMI—McGregor Smith, Florida Power and Light Company chairman of the board and the utility's chief executive officer for 25 years, will be honored by the University of Tennessee Saturday (Feb. 22) as "Engineer of the Year."

The Nathan W. Dougherty Award for 1963, given each year to an outstanding leader in the engineering field will be presented to Smith at the Florida Engineering Society's annual banquet, 7 p. m., at the Everglades Hotel. Dean Armour T. Granger of the University's College of Engineering, who is coming to Miami especially for the presentation in conjunction with National Engineers' Week, observed: "McGregor Smith has certainly contributed to the prestige of our University by his outstanding career."

Smith was nominated for the award by retired University of Tennessee Professor R. C. Matthews, now a Ft. Lauderdale resident. Cited, among other things, were the FPL official's role in directing the company's vast expansion program over the years and "the manner in which he made friends of former enemies of his company."

Both alumni and non-alumni are eligible for the honor and final selection is made by a special committee appointed by Dean Granger.

The 64-year-old Smith is regarded as one of Florida's leading industrialists and one of the state's most influential men. He graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1921, with a Bachelor of Science.

More Out Than In State Penitentiary

CHATTAHOOCHEE—Secretary of State Tom Adams has called 1963 a milestone in Florida's penal history. For it was the first year that the courts of this state placed more offenders on probation than they committed to the state prison.

Speaking to the Florida Council on Crime Delinquency recently at the Apalachee Correctional Institution, Adams pointed out that 2,881 persons were sentenced to terms of supervised probation while 2,817 were committed to prison.

"During 1962", he said, "3,300 offenders were being supervised and rehabilitated outside prison walls through the facilities of Florida's probation and parole system. This compares to less than 6,800 who remained inside the penal and correctional institutions."

The Secretary of State, citing the need for more effort toward rehabilitation rather than punishment, called for improvements in the probation and parole system and for an expanded program of psychological diagnosis within the prison system.

Ed Mason Will Run For Reelection To R&PU Commission

TALLAHASSEE — Edwin L. "Ed" Mason, 47-year-old Democrat, today announced that he is a candidate for reelection to the Florida Public Utilities Commission, of which he is now Chairman.

Improved transportation, power and communications services at the lowest rates possible were pledged by Mason, under the system of individual enterprise that has made the United States "the wealthiest and greatest nation in the world."

"Florida's continued phenomenal growth requires equally rapid expansion of transportation and utility facilities and demands that regulation of these vital services must be on the highest level," said Mason. "That means fully protecting the public from excessive charges, yet assuring a healthy climate that will attract investors. Just as the shipper, the storekeeper, and the homeowner must be assured of only fair charges for services, so must those who provide these services be allowed, in the public interest, to earn a fair and reasonable return on their investments."

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new  $3\frac{3}{4}\%$  interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to  $2\frac{1}{4}\%$  for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for peace. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

Passion Play Will Open Lake Wales

With the opening of the Passion Play season at Lake Wales, that central Florida community is once more demonstrating what can be done when a whole town gets behind a civic project.

Each winter, Lake Wales presents one of the country's foremost outdoor dramas. One hundred and fifty local men, women and children contribute their services as actors to augment the professional cast in the two and one-half hour play. The youngest in this group is only 4 and the oldest 80. There are lawyers, merchants, citrus growers, housewives, winter residents and school children. Some of the girls taking part are from nearby Webber College. There are even a few who come from neighboring towns to participate in the production. None of them receives a cent. Ticket takers are volunteers, as well as the officers and directors of the local organization that assumes the responsibility of operating the Passion Play Amphitheatre where the Play is presented.

Several times during the season special Passion Play trains roll into the Lake Wales station. Hundreds of local citizens are waiting with their cars to transport the 500 to 1000 train passengers from the station to the Amphitheatre and back again after the Play. There is no charge for this service—it's another way in which Lake Walesans help to support the Passion Play.

The businessmen of the community contribute to the annual Chamber of Commerce Passion Play advertising fund to help promote the project. This year a group of teenagers held a Passion Play Tag Day and the Garden Club sponsored a "Dollars for the Passion Play" drive. The people of Lake Wales are proud of their Passion Play and want the rest of the state to know about it.

This year the Lake Wales Passion Play will run for 44 performances. It is presented every Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday through April 19th.

Mrs. Lou Lombard and children, Lisa and Linda, of Miami returned to their home Monday after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller in Canal Point.

Robert Day To Run For Legislature

"I look at our state and district as a big development that must be run with common sense to maintain its beauty, we must hold the line on the tax dollar and create laws that will guide the State in its growth so it can become the Utopia of the world," Day said.

He listed saving tax dollars through a leasing of State owned lands; improved highways for Palm Beach County; a review of our school systems and an effort to improve them; aid for retirees and establishing a closer relationship between elected representatives in the House and the communities they serve, as a few of his campaign pledges.

In Florida... after bowling, beer is a natural

After you've bowled a game or two, or when you're winding up the evening at the neighborhood bowling center, it's good to relax with friends and compare scores. What better way to add to the sport and the sociableness than with a refreshing glass of beer? However you take your fun—beer always makes a welcome addition to the party.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.
